By

Eiji Toryu Sensei

6th Dan JKA

JKA Boston's chief instructor, Eiji Toryu, is a 6th Dan black belt and an internationally recognized and certified instructor from Japan Karate Association and Shotokan Karate-Do International. With over 35 years of training in martial arts, Sensei Toryu brings to the dojo the traditions of karate discipline and honor, along with his long-time experience in Japanese martial arts. Sensei Toryu was born on Shikoku, the smallest of Japan's four main islands. His first martial art was Judo, in which he has a first degree black belt. He came to the United States after graduating from Reitaku University, and has been teaching at JKA Boston since 1981.

Qualifications and Dan Exams:

1st Dan exam as well as D-Level qualification tests will be performed at the camp. Please note that only the full camp participants are eligible for dan examination with valid JKA passports. All dan examinees must complete and submit the official JKA dan exam forms by Saturday at 12:00 noon.

Qualification Exams Criteria:

1-In order to take D-level Instructor & Judging qualifications exams you must have attained your 2nd Dan for at least 3 months.

2-In order to take D-level Examiner qualification exam you must have attained your 3rd Dan for at least 3 months and have your D-level instructors as well as judging qualifications. In both cases you must attend the qualification classes in the camp.
